The point to our stars

Every faculty and staff member has their roll to play; the Superintendent is the producer, the Principal is the director, the Guidance Counselors are our agents, the teachers are our writers and acting coaches, the cafeteria staff is craft services, not to mention the huge crew of behind the scene workers who help everything to run smoothly. Without them we would be a cast without a roll to play. Thanks to our dedicated staff, when we leave SHS we can hit our marks and perform with the best of them!

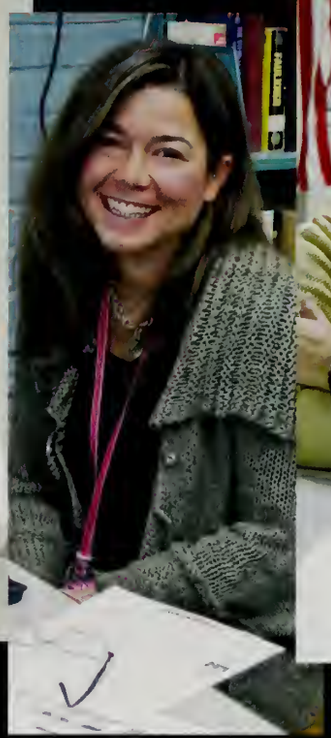

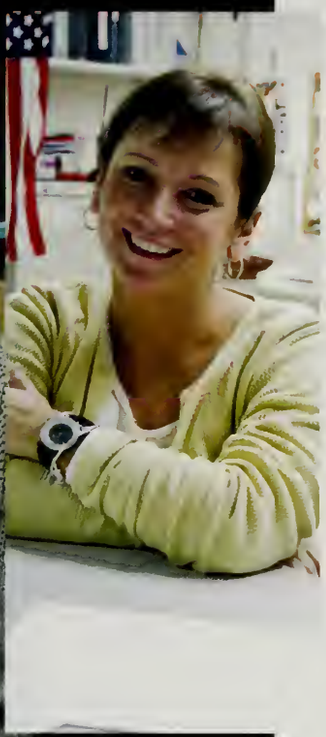

All of our sports players are safe in the hands of Jen Dowd. When you're in pain she maintains conversation to keep you calm. She is a wealth of knowledge and keeps the SHS sports teams in tact. She is a wonderful trainer.

1) Mr. Silva is not only a supportive teacher, but he urges for the best. He makes his classes interesting with his unique teaching skills and spontaneous personality. He knows how to make students smile even when they are stressed . Mr. Silva has become a student favorite over the years.

2) Mrs. Conti is a remarkable person, she is a mother figure to many students with her caring and loving personality. She has a massive amount of patience, and works very well with people which is why she found she calling as a staff member in the special education department.

3) Mrs. Cederquist is an amazing teacher who consistently maintains an upbeat personality. She does everything in her power to motivate students and has the sweetest heart ever. Mrs. Cederquist has created unforgettable memories for her former students.

4) Mrs. DeNapoli helps organize the office and keeps everything running smoothly on a day to day basis. Without her and Mrs. Dutra the office machine would quickly come grinding to a halt.

Mr. Denison

After attending Southeastern Massachusetts University, what is now UMASS Dartmouth, Mr. Denison obtained his Masters Degree from Fitchburg State University. On top of his four years as a high school student at Stoughton High school, Mr. Denison has worked here at SHS for another 35 years. He loves the daily interaction with kids in the classroom and when his students have those "light bulb moments"! Mr. Denison says that he will miss his students and colleagues and that the faculty has been very supportive. In his retirement, Mr. Denison plans to continue to work as a part of the Stoughton Recreation Department and will be missed here at Stoughton High School.

Stepping out o

Mr. Krol

After obtaining his Bachelor's Degree at Boston College Mr. Krol became a math teacher at Xaverian Brothers High School in Westwood. He worked three years as an Actuarial Consultant was followed by twenty years at Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts in various management positions. He made a move into international management consulting and spent ten years as Executive Vice President specializing in operations and technology. He worked as an MCAS tutor at Stoughton High School and soon found himself working full-time here at SHS. After working three years in the Math Department and seven years in the Business and Technology Department, Mr. Krol is retiring. His love for teaching makes him unsure of how long his retirement will last but he says he already has three cruises booked and is ready to enjoy his retirement!

the Spotlight

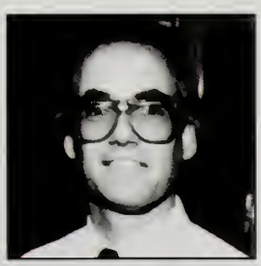

Mr. Limbey

In 1974 Mr. Limbey started teaching at what was then Stoughton Junior High School and stayed there for seventeen years. In fact, Mr. Tosca and Mr. Limbey taught on the same team for 10 years. In 1991 he transferred to Stoughton High School and was fortunate to be assigned room A304 right next door to Mr. Denison. In June of 2009, Mr. Limbey took on the role of Director of the English department; the following year the World Language department was added to his responsibilities. However, teaching has always been his first love, and says the students in Stoughton have filled him with optimism for the future . In an era filled with negative press about students, teachers and schools, Mr. Limbey says he has been lucky to work in a town filled with many wonderful students, dedicated and caring teachers, and successful schools. He would like to thank them for giving him a very rewarding career.

Mr. Tosca

Mr. Tosca has taught history for over thirty years in grades 7 to 12. Upon retirement, he intends to work when he wants, at his leisure, on projects of interest to him. Mr. Tosca says that his identity is not based on his work or possessions. Instead, he says that his identity is based on more profound things, including his spontaneity, his peace of mind, and his passion for new experiences. Mr. Tosca has made a huge impact here at Stoughton High School and has inspired his students with his extensive knowledge and entertaining lessons. He will be missed.

Dear Class of 2012:

You did it! Congratulations on your graduation from Stoughton High School. You and your families should feel proud of your accomplishment; the faculty and staff of SHS share in this pride. I know that you have worked hard and overcome many obstacles to get here. You have also made valuable contributions to the Stoughton High School community along the way. I hope that your experience at SHS has been a memorable one.

We will miss the Class of 2012. You are truly a great group of young men and women. It has been an absolute pleasure to serve as your principal. Thank you for your spirit and your participation in the classroom, athletics, performing arts, and extracurricular activities. Many of you have also dedicated your personal time to improving the greater community. We are proud of you, and your future looks bright.

On behalf of the faculty and staff at Stoughton High, I wish you all the best as you move into the world of higher education, the military or the workforce. We hope that you maintain your strong connection with your high school and your community.

Sincerely,

Mr. Matthew Colantonio

MARGUERITE C. RIZZI, Ed. D.
SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Dear Members of the Class of 2012,

As the Superintendent of the Stoughton Public Schools, I wish to congratulate you, the members of the class of 2012, upon the successful completion of your high school career. You have worked very hard to fulfill all of the requirements for graduation from Stoughton High School, and you have done it with grace, excellence and commitment.

Throughout your high school years you have exhibited a commitment to achievement through academics, the arts, athletics, community service and many fields of endeavor. Your class is particularly commendable for your tremendous leadership in the area of sportsmanship, and high standards with which you represent your school, families, and your town. The Stoughton School community, all of your teachers, administrators and the entire staff are very proud of you.

Your parents and other members of your family also share in your accomplishments. Their love, understanding, and support have allowed you to grow into the young men and women that you are today, and we know that they, like us, are justly proud.

You graduate in a time of financial uncertainty and a changing world. I have great confidence that with the skills, knowledge and maturity that you have gained while in the Stoughton Public Schools, you will make a bright future for yourselves in an exciting and increasingly global and technological environment. I wish you success, happiness, good health and good fortune as you move on to the next phase of your life, and beyond. You have made your school, families and community very proud.

Sincerely,

Dr. Marguerite C. Rizzi
Superintendent of Schools

JUNIOR SEMI!

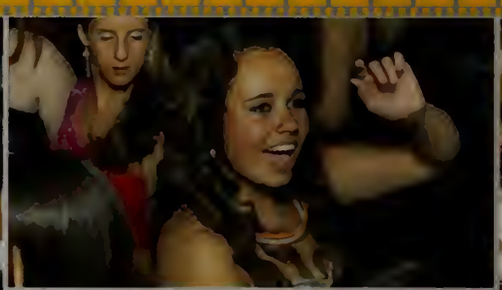

Partied with the stars - A KNIGHT to remember!

April 29, 2011

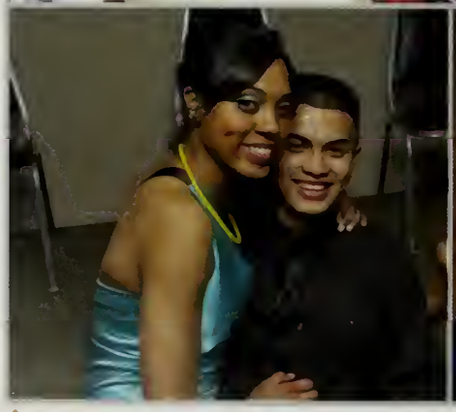

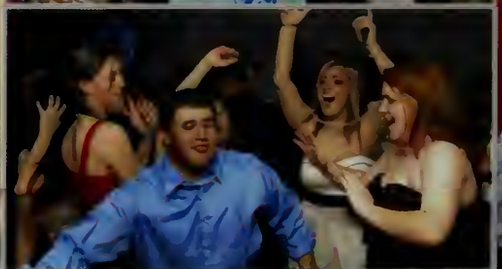

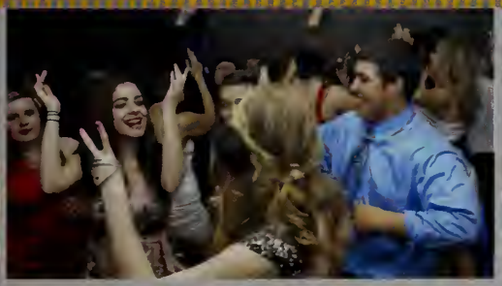

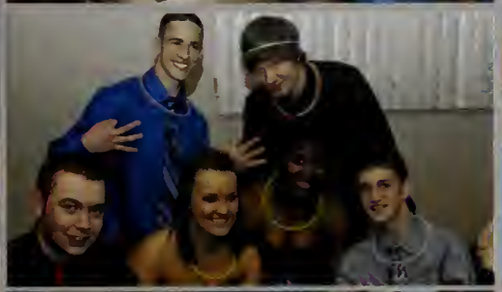

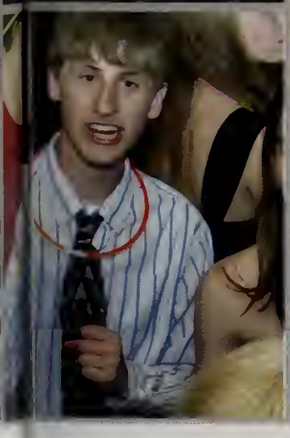

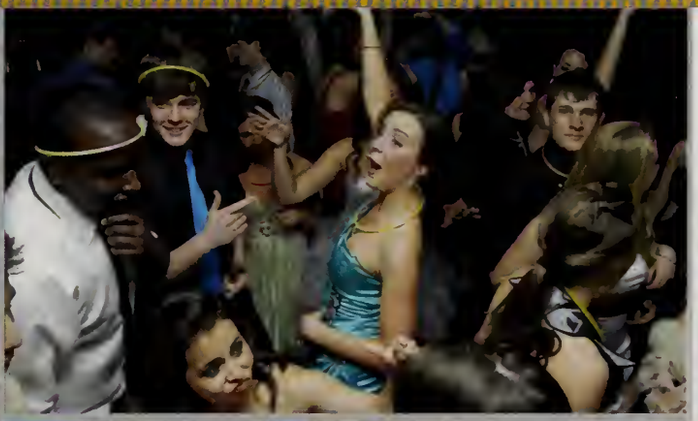

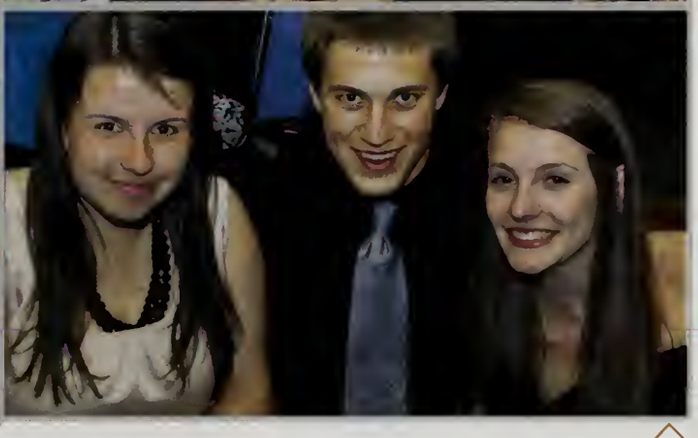

Cut! That's a wrap...

High school has gone by so fast, where has the time gone? You hear people saying they can't wait to get out of here. But, you know reminiscing on all of the great memories you have made with your class will bring tears to your eyes. Then, there is the fact that our lives are changing as we speak and we may never see each other again. As we look at our senior year, we think back to not only, Powder Puff, Prom, the Class Trip, Senior Week, Party All Night Long, and Graduation, but everyday spent with our teachers, classmates and peers at Stoughton High School.

Q:What was your most embarrassing moment as an underclassman?

A: "Walking into a wrong class full of seniors."- Jovani Pires, Grade 10

Q:What event are you most excited to participate in when you reach senior year and why?

A:"Prom because its the best part about high school." Kirby Impoinvil, Grade 9

There are four grades that unite the school, but the majority of them are the underclassmen. They are not yet the stars of the school, but are close to reaching the top! Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshman are what keep our school going and make it as one. They are the understudies of the Seniors, but will soon have the most fame!

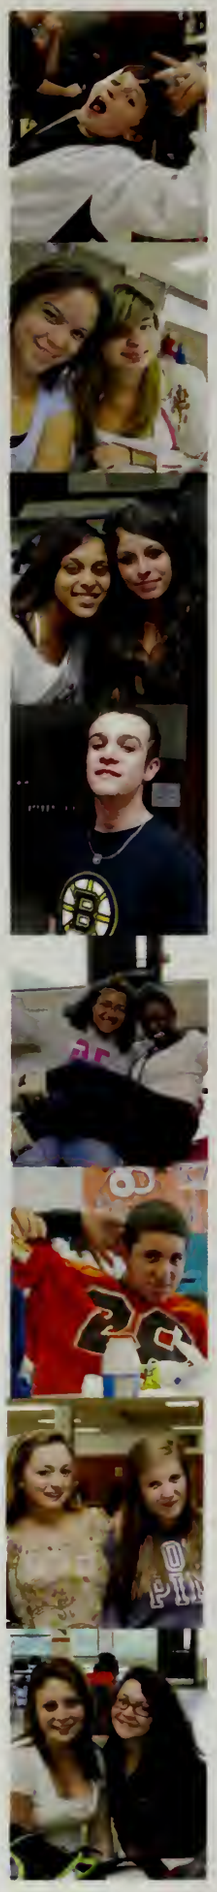

Freshman, Samantha Gomes, Samantha Langmead, Victoria Soncrant, Jennifer Siewert, and Jalena Khan socialize in the cafeteria while their teacher is absent. They finish the work their teachers assigned and are very conscientious students.

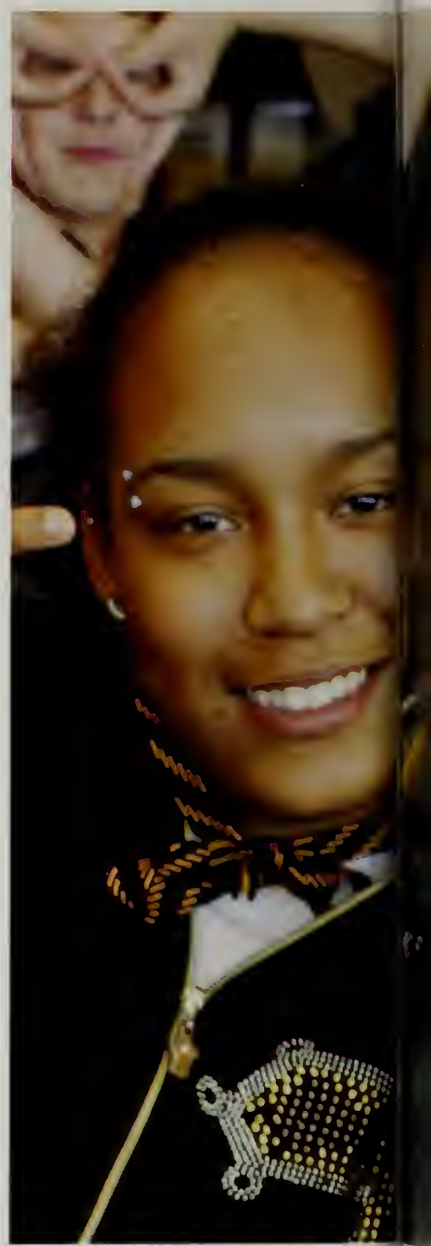

Sophomores, Alexandra Charette, Marvin Edme, Alexa Ploss and Sam Werman show their spirit wearing their Boston sports team shirts during spirit week. They did their part to gain points for their class to win the category of Boston sports day!

Freshman Kelly Barros, Lauren Carter, Shelby Sprague, Rachel Mace, Shannon Barkey, Ashlyn Crean, Brittany Block and Marissa Ramos are hanging out during lunch and gossiping about how their day has been so far, and hoping for a great rest of the day together.

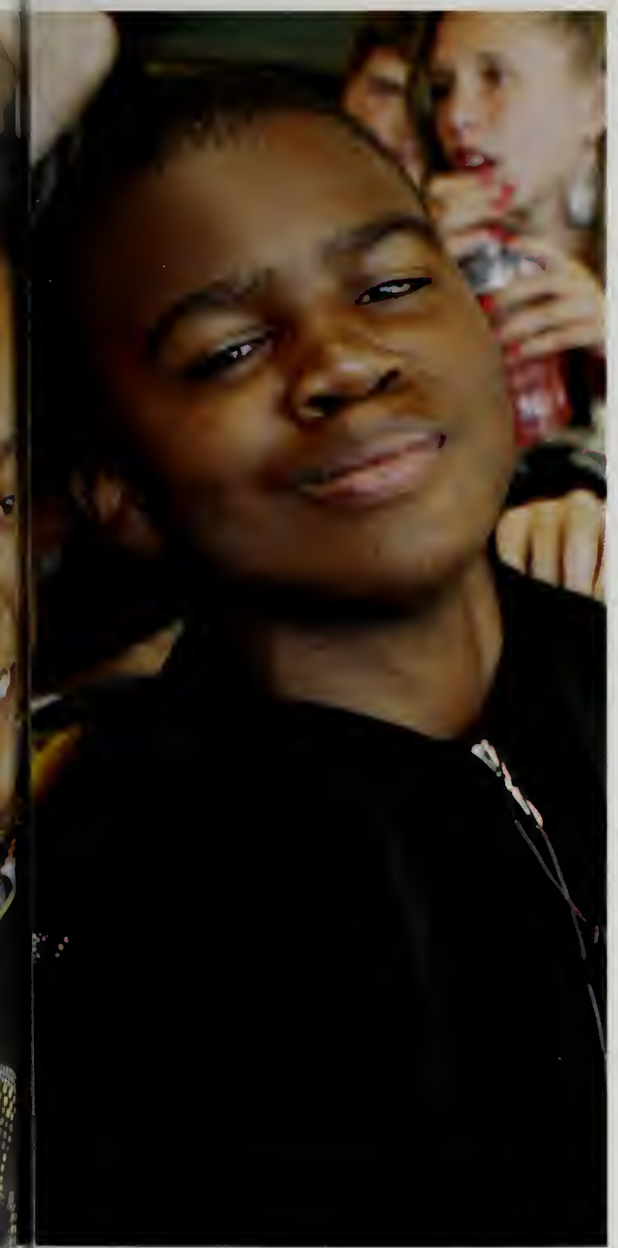

Rising Stars!

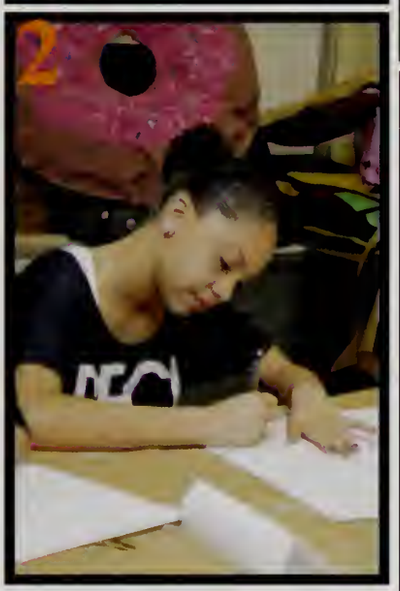

1 Freshman, Jonathan Kerman is smiling for the camera while finishing up some work.

2 Freshman, Gabby Martinez quietly does her work in class, and is trying to get the best grade possible!

3 Sophomore Katherine Bell works on her drawing during art class to make it bright and vibrant!

4 Junior, Daryl Ford has a grin on his face while walking in the hallway to his favorite class!

Knights In Action

Each team shows great sportsmanship, win or lose. Throughout the seasons each Black Knight develops a special bond with one another, and becomes one big family. No matter what team you play on you are a Black Knight.

Junior Marcus Middleton receives the ball on a hand off and runs through the Sharon Eagles with help from his offensive linemen Brandon Alves and Joey Wilder.

Last Time Taking The Stage

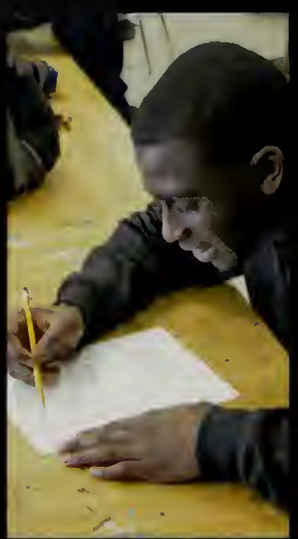

Dedication- Unity- Preparation- Determination- Respect
You go through long hard practices, and intense suspenseful games to come together as one; a family. Your teammates become your siblings, people you care about and look out for in and out of the game.

Life of a Celebrity

As we begin our walk down the orange carpet we show off the love and pride we have for our school. Whether its drawing in art class, having endless laughs at lunch, hanging with our friends in gym, or playing our favorite instrument, we students have dignity in what we do. There is a variety of clubs, sports and activities that appeal to us depending on our interests. While doing all these fun events we pose for paparazzi to take all of our pictures. We the stars of Stoughton High School will walk across that stage as legends leaving our mark.

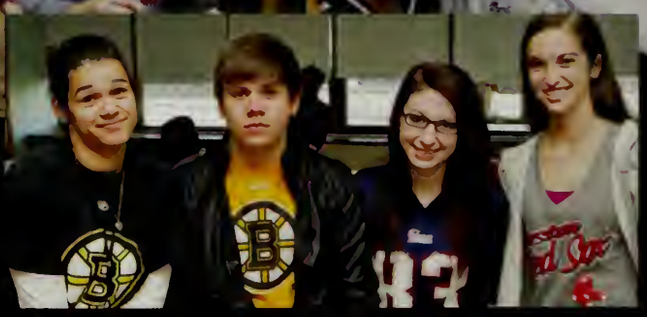

Above: Taylor Bicica, Justin Buresh, Kayla Burgos, Rachel Berkowsky are showing their Bruins, Patriots, and Red Sox pride at their school. They all hope that these teams will make it to the finals and win it all during their seasons!

Thanksgiving Game!

The Black Knights football team traveled to Canton and beat the Bulldogs for the seventh consecutive Thanksgiving day game. The final score was 27-7. Brandon Alves had three sacks and numerous tackles behind the line of scrimmage. Asad Elmi blocked a punt deep in Canton territory midway through the third quarter, setting up Aaron Mack's third touchdown. Alex Kimball sacked the Canton quarterback on 4th and 16 for a 10-yard loss, giving the Black Knights the ball at the Canton six where they drove for the final touch down of the game. Stoughton finished 6-5 for the season and second in the Davenport Division, turning in their first winning season since 2006.

The Spotlight on the Stoughton Stars

The Stoughton Black Knights do not only succeed inside the classroom but also in the gym. We are known for our outstanding and continuous sportsmanship. Some of the Black Knight teams have done exceptionally well this year. Some of the accomplishments were that the boys basketball team becoming D2 South Sectional Champions and the girls team also qualifying for the state tournament, volleyball making it to their tournament game for the first time in their new program, the hockey team winning the Sportsmanship Award and the cheerleading team reaching a personal best, making it to the National competition for the first time in Stoughton High history.

Above: Senior Raymond Bowdre retrieves a great rebound and goes up for another layup to help the Black Knights in their victory against the Hopkinton Hillers.

Fashion at SHS this year debuted several hip and popping styles. In the halls of the Knights, North Face, UGGS, feather earrings, flower shirts from Forever 21 and other hot trendy themes made their way through out the whole year at SHS. Vera Bradly backpacks, wallets, lanyards and handbags were commonly seen within the lady knights. Whatever the trend is for the year, Stoughton High will look the very best while walking down the red carpet!

ONIGH SCHOOL HAS SEEN IT ALL! SO WHAT'S IN YOUR CLOSET?!

Colorful, Fly, and In Style!

During the year many seniors purchased the orange SENIO12S 2012 shirts to represent their class.

Many boys and girls wear pull over sweatshirts from American Eagle and other stores similar to that.

Leather jackets from the '50's are back in style! They were a huge trend for girls to wear to show off their style.

Visual Arts

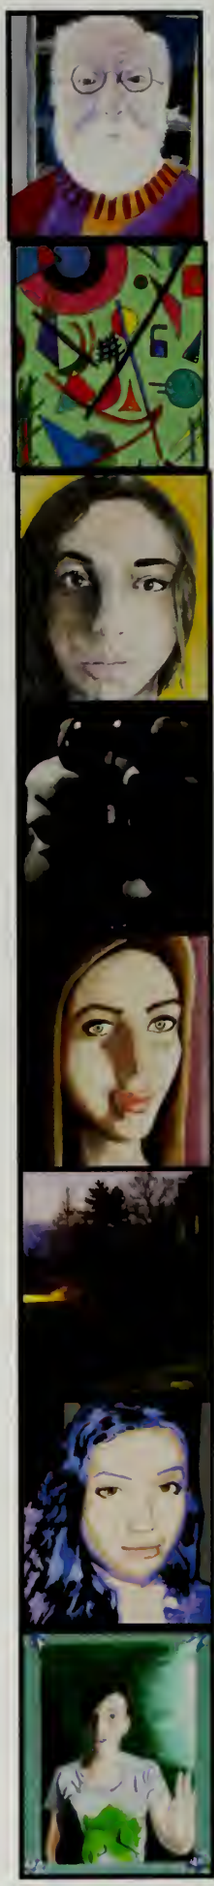

Freshman Amanda Carlow received an Honorable Mention for her self portrait. This dark piece of artwork has a powerful title which is "Waiting to be Reborn."

Junior Johnna Costello also received an Honorable Mention for her self portrait that was titled "Enough."

This self portrait of sophomore Emma Sinkus won a Gold Key. Such a simple piece became so deep as she named it, "In Darkest Folds, You find Light."

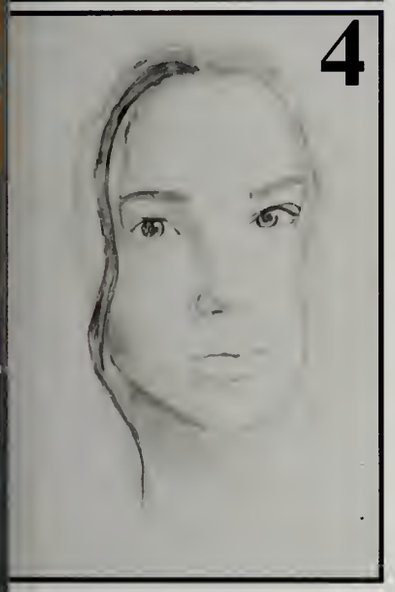

This portrait titled "Angela" ha a lot of dedication put into it and with that won a Silver Key for sophomore Alec DeNapoli.

This self portrait was titled "Hoping for a Thaw" won a Gold Key for how unique it is by, freshman Shannon Hickey

Alec DeNapoli also won another Silver Key for his self portrait he painted.

This drawing by sophomore Julia Sjoquist titled "White and White" won a Gold Key for its outstanding characteristics.

Visual Art is a very important program for many talented stars at Stoughton High School. Whether it is a painting or drawing inspired in art class or a picture taken at a spontaneous moment, the students of SHS use their artistic talent to express themselves.

One of the many measures of the success of the SHS Visual Arts Program is its yearly success in the Globe/Scholastic Art and Writing Awards. Students from all over the country send their art work in hoping to get recognized for their talent. Shown on these pages are some of this years winners, as well as many other works by our exceptionally talented students.

Bottle Rockets and Bridges

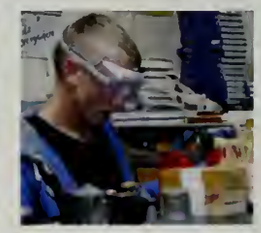

It's Monday morning, you're sitting in first period class anticipating the ring of the bell. You look out the window and wish time would pass more quickly. You see seniors gather on the track and for a split second you wonder what's the occasion. Suddenly, an object rather long and mysterious dashes into the sky at lightning speed. A look of amazement arises on the faces of the seniors gathered below as they point in the direction of the shooting star. It's not a shooting star, but something just as exciting; Physics' annual "Bottle Rocket" projects. For seniors, its a right of passage. They walk around school with their empty soda bottles, their awkward colors and designs, critiquing each others efforts and boasting about whose will go the highest. Bridges are another part of the senior year adventures. Each year seniors build their bridges, toothpick by toothpick, in hopes that it will hold the most weight and not crumble to the ground. Underclassmen will soon have their chance to face the crushing bridges and the bottle rockets that launch through the blue sky.

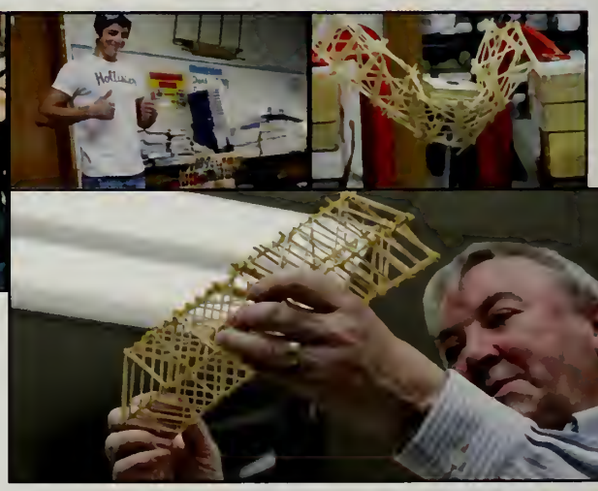

Mr. Carey presents a student's bridge before putting it to the test. The top achievers this year were Matthew Martin, whose bridge held 79 pounds and Jeff Zeserson whose rocket defied gravity for 18.2 seconds!

Below: Jason Varela, Shawn Selman, Ryan Keelan, and Vanessa McCoy stare in awe as the rocket spirals up beyond what they expected.

Colorguard and Band

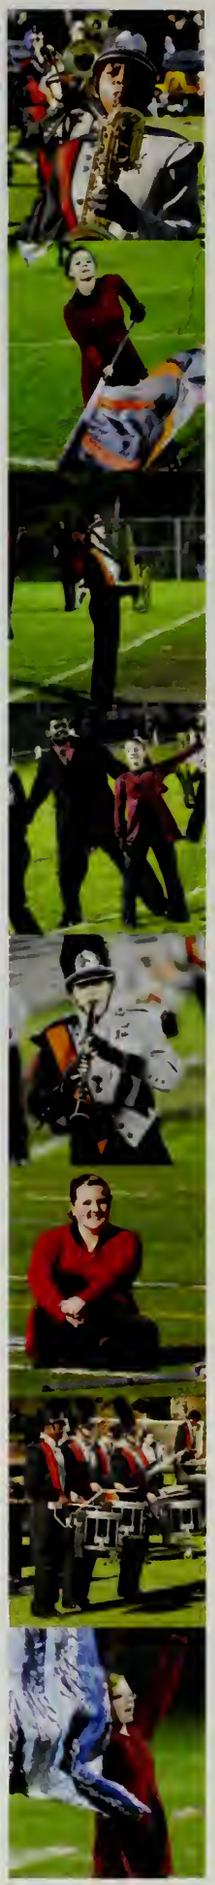

A group of band members calm their nerves just before they perform. The crowd is anticipating the Band and Colorguard. They are ready for a show!

Julia Sjoquist and Leslie Camilo perform in the opening of the show. As Colorguard members they spice up the show with their flag work. By going along with the music of the band they create a visually stunning experience!

Captains Sam Souto, Jordan Benson, Sam Rego, Edward Ruddy, and Daniel Block are filled with joy from their first place win. It was a exciting night for both Band and Colorguard!

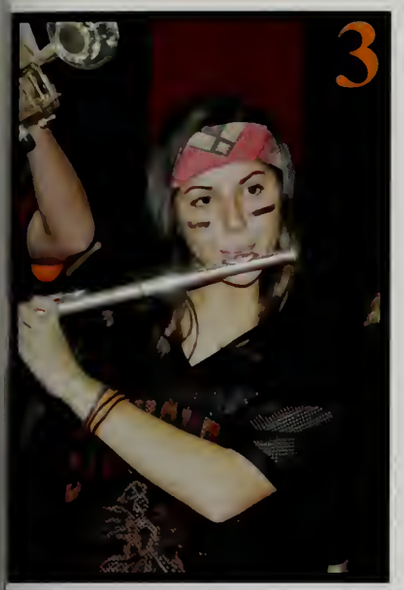

Senior Mikala Gilroy plays her clarinet during one of their best performances! This was a very fun show!

Mike Silveira and Alex Peixinho performed under the night sky! They were moving with the beat and getting the crowd going.

Sydney Matook plays her flute with all her might to entertain the crowd during the Stoughton High School pep rally! She had fierceness in this show!

Nzinga Moore showing off her flag work. The Colorguard and Band spent months practicing and perfecting their moves to have a great show and most of all entertain the audience!

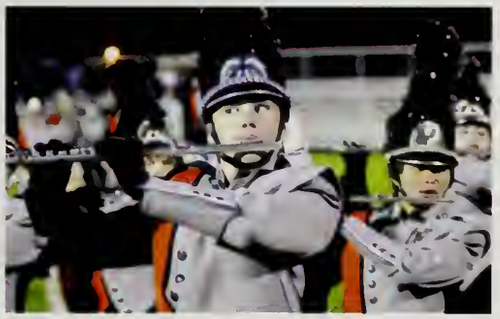

The soundtrack to our movie!

The Marching Band and Colorguard work hard to put on a great show. The two teams began practicing in the heat of August. Soon enough they figured out the seriousness of their commitments and did their best to learn their music and dance moves. They became a family and started helping each other with their strengths and weaknesses until they were ready to perform on the field for the audience. The first performance was exhilarating! Each and every show was a new experience and it just kept getting better! During the football games, the Marching Band and Colorguard provided entertainment for the audience with their great music and awesome flag work! This year's music theme was British Invasion. It showcases music from British acts such as The Who and Queen. This show was one of their best yet!

Band and Chorus

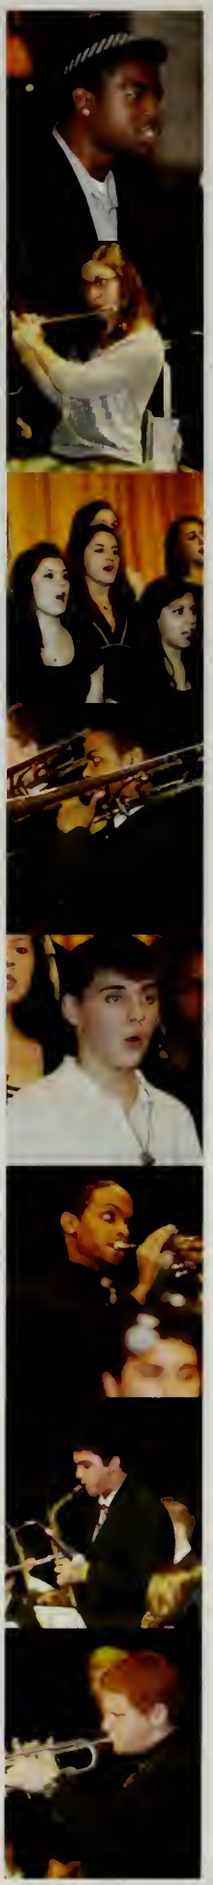

During the holiday concert a group of girls sing with joy and enthusiasm.Their voices shake the auditorium as different pitches are hit. They did an incredible and amazing job getting the audience's attention as soon as they hit the stage.

Mr. Davey directs the band with fierce passion during the holiday concert. Students practiced long intense hours to conduct a performance that achieves great excellence. Every year the students deliver an amazing performance that is appreciated by all.

2 Alexander Peixinho rocks to the beat of the sound as his saxophone is heard throughout the auditorium.

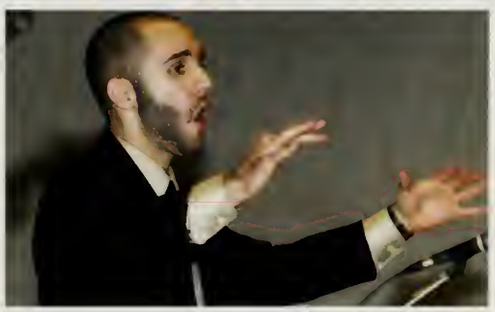

Shining Stars of the Knight

Stoughton High School provides an atmosphere for students to express their talent through the arts. At the annual holiday concert, band and chorus come together to create a spectacular ceremony. An event that all the students in band and chorus had been preparing for since the start of the school, turned into a big hit as the audience applauded them after their amazing performance. They captured the audiences attention by taking the stage with some inspirational songs that they've been working on all year. Mr. Coombs showed enthusiasm for his first year teaching at Stoughton High School.

3 Malachi Baugh catches the spot light as he stands in front of his fellow peers to sing holiday carols.

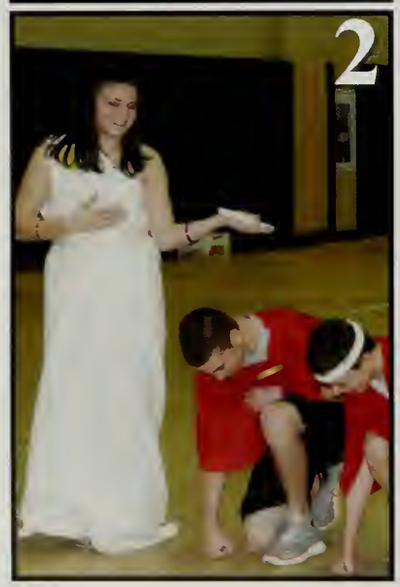

4 Darlene Irons jams out on the saxophone, as she gets into the holiday spirit.

Destination Imagination

Destination Imagination, otherwise known as Construction Challenge, shows their engineering skills and creativity by constructing projects to compete against neighboring schools in the "Hold it" and "Assembly Required" competitions at Whitman-Hanson High School. Stoughton has five teams all coached by the dedicated Mr. Norton and Mr. Koutros. The "49ers", consisting of Paul Comeau, Jeremy Lim, Nolan Fraine, Thomas Bernsten, Andrea Chica, Dylan Freitas and Victoria Tran, received the Renaissance award for the realistic nature of their mining cart with handmade gas-masks and working safety lanterns. The only team that moved on to compete at WPI for states was "Team Reel", consisting of Jessica Freitas, Nicole Hayner, Ashley Gibson, Brandon Alves, Ryan Loughran and Sarah Purcell, for the "Hold it" competition with a tower that help 120 pounds. The club worked very hard all year, some night staying at the school until 10:30!

ALL SCHOO

With an endless amount of fun and laughter, we the stars still manage to be on the top of the charts. No matter where in the school we are, our work is our number one priority and we always give it our best effort. Our teachers supply us with all of the right tools and walk with us every step of the way! Here, at Stoughton High, teachers and students unite to strive for success.

It goes without saying...

We cannot express our gratitude in enough words for Ms. Cardoso. Thank you so much for helping us plan each event and being there for us every step of the way. We would also like to thank the entire faculty for contributing to the young adults we have all become. Special thanks to the guidance department for leading all of us in the right direction. Most importantly, thank you to all of our classmates who helped make our four years together unforgettable. Good luck in all your future endeavors!

To the underclassmen, enjoy the rest of your years at SHS. Make the best of everything. Remember, make your high school, don't let it make you.

SHS Stars Give Back!

The students of Stoughton High School do not only give their all in the classroom, but also to their community around them. Whether it is walking for a cure, donating to the people in need, or making a wish for someone the students at Stoughton will strive to make other people's life better. These are just some of the few examples of the hard work and dedication the stars do for their home town. Giving back is a honor for students at SHS to do and that will never change throughout the years.

Above: Many students, Ms. Turnball and Ms. Rossi of Stoughton High smile after collecting and counting all the pajamas they received during the drive.

As the show comes to an end, the curtain closing shows our dedication, love, and pride we have for our school. Whether it was making memories to last a lifetime at lunch, hanging with our friends during studies, cramming for a test the hour before or visiting our favorite teachers, we the students are always occupied and giving our best efforts. The various amounts of clubs, sports, and activities have led to the interests and lifetime bonds that have been created throughout this school. Pausing during the show to capture these moments is what makes this cast unforgettable for years to come. As this show at Stoughton High School closes, we will walk across that stage and bow leaving our footsteps behind.

Your Stotonian Staff

The story behind us...

The Stotonian Yearbook Staff worked especially hard this past year to make the 2012 yearbook perfect! We have been the crew behind the scenes to show off the beauty of this wonderful school. Every day each person in our class put 100% effort into all of the pages they were assigned to create and make this yearbook magical! Each student at this school has their own originality and they try to shine as bright as they can. That is what The Stotonian Staff is trying to display in this book of memories. We hope you enjoy the show!

Dedication

Jane Welch Sheehan

The 2012 Stotonian staff would like to dedicate this year's yearbook to Jane Welch Sheehan. Jane was a former Stoughton High School English teacher, Guidance Counselor, and the Director of Guidance and Testing. She was a large part of the Stoughton High Community and made a difference in many kids lives. She started working at the high school in 1972 as an English teacher, then shortly after become a Guidance Counselor in 1979. In 1986, Jane moved right up to becoming the Director of Guidance and Testing for all of the Stoughton Public Schools. Mrs. Sheehan worked in Stoughton for over 25 years and touched each heart that walked into her office.

"Mrs. Sheehan was a consumate professional and I was lucky to have had the opportunity to work with her for three years prior to her retirement. Mrs. Sheehan worked tirelessly for her students and her fellow counselors at Stoughton High, completing all the behind-the-scenes work that allowed the rest of us counselors to meet with students."

- Barbara Meyer

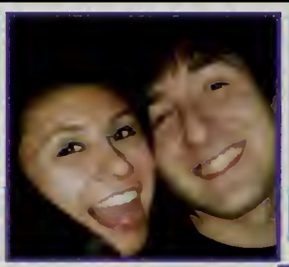

"Mrs. Sheehan was a mentor, guide and teacher for me. Thanks to her my dream of working with students within the SPS became a reality. I am most fortunate to have crossed paths with her personally and professionally. She will be sadly missed."

- Mrs. Carr

Thank you to all the businesses and parents who purchased advertisements in the 2012 Stoughtonian. Without you, this yearbook would not be possible!

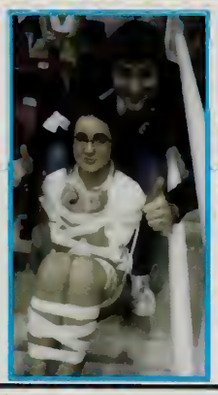

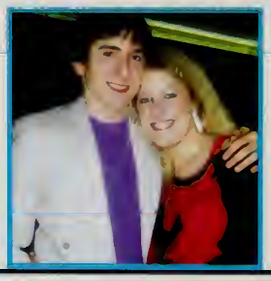

Nick, Kelly, Brittany, & Amanda

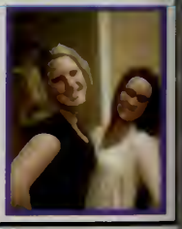

"When we first talked to each other I knew we would always be friends. Our friendship has kept growing and I'll be here for you to the end. You listen when I have a problem and help dry the tears from my face. You take away my sorrow and put happiness in its place. We can't forget the fun we've had laughing 'til our faces turn blue. Talking of things only we find funny, people think we're insane - if they only knew. I guess this is my way of saying thanks for catching me when I fall. Thanks once again for being such a good friend and being here with me through it all."

You have come a long way and jumped over many milestones. We are proud of your accomplishments and cannot express how far your dedication and strength has taken you in the past four years. Brother, you are strong, competitive, and never fail to make us laugh. Son, you are loving, caring and never fail to make us proud. Grandson you are intelligent, devoted, and never fail to make us smile. Uncle, you are helpful, inspirational, and never fail to make us happy. You have come a long way and have proven that anything is possible if you really want it. We wish you the best and look forward to seeing you make a difference and expand your horizons. While you continue your journey, learn and absorb as much as you can and remember we will always be here for you. Congratulations!

And Cousin Kelly Collins too!

Felicia & Nicole

This girl has been my best friend for as long as I can remember, she has been there for me through everything and knows probably way to much about me. We could write a book with all the memories we have been through. Our families have grown so close with us just constantly being with each other. Her mom is like my second, our closets are shared, and holidays always involve each other. I don't even have to talk without her knowing what I was going to say or already giving me "the look" and finishing my sentences. We are probably the farthest from normal but it's perfectly fine. We ARE going to grow old together. I would do anything for her. I love her with all my heart and soul and she will always be a huge part of my life.

After more than 2 years, Iran released two American hikers who were charged with illegal entry into the country and spying.

SCIENCE&DISCOVERIES

TURNING A NEW LEAF

A team of MIT researchers developed an "artificial leaf" that could be used to soak up the sun's energy and store for later use. Leaves absorb, convert and store solar energy and this new man-made silcon leaf mimics those abilities. Given that the sun is our most renewable resource, scientists look to maximize it with new technologies like this.

LASER RAIN

A new method to create rain was researched by European scientists. By using lasers in the atmosphere, they were able to change moisture levels and create small water droplets. Although the drops weren't big enough to reach the ground, they may help promote natural rainfall.

YOUNG SCIENTISTS

Thirty middle school students gathered in Washington D.C. to showcase their scientific talent at the Broadcom MASTERS™ (Math, Applied Science, Technology, and Engineering for Rising Stars), a program of Society for Science & the Public. The finalists faced off in team challenges and shared individual research projects. First prize went to California's Daniel Feeny, 14, who proved that the force of waves doesn't affect the variety of plants and animals that live close to shore.

CREEPY CRAWLIES

The world's largest insect, a Giant Weta, was discovered in New Zealand, but has been around for a very long time and predates the dinosaurs. This particular insect weighed in at 2.5 ounces and measured over 7 inches in length, making it the biggest insect on record.

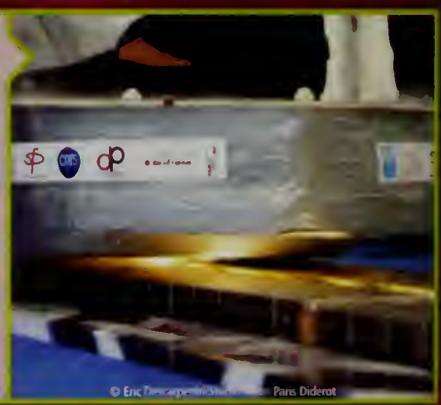

LIKE A DREAM

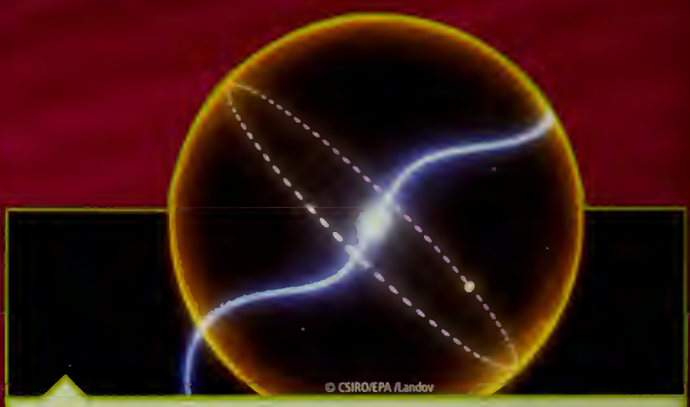

A study suggested that dreams can act as therapy for life's emotional events. When shown emotion-provoking pictures before sleep, the part of the brain that handles emotion "powered down" during the REM sleep stage. Also, individuals said they felt less emotionally charged when they awoke, which led researchers to believe they gained relief from their recent, painful memories.

AIR SURFING

The MagSurf brings dreams of levitation to life. University Paris Diderot researchers built a skateboard-like platform that can float above a magnetic track with a person standing on it. The superconducting matter inside the skateboard is cooled by liquid nitrogen, which allows the board to hover above the magnetic track.

NICE ROCK

A new planet made of diamond crystals was discovered by a team of astronomers. The planet, which is 60,000 km in diameter, is 5 times larger than Earth and is part of the Milky Way.

In 1905, Albert Einstein was the first to claim that nothing traveled faster than the speed of light.

ONE FAST NEUTRINO

For over a century, it was believed that nothing traveled faster than the speed of light. That all may have changed when scientists clocked a tiny particle called a neutrino traveling faster. The difference in speed was so slight that some scientists remained skeptical and continue to retest for accuracy.

POPULATION BOOM

The world's population reached 7 billion in 2011, growing at a faster rate than ever, due in part to longer lifespans.

NOBEL PRIZE WINNERS

Scientific advances were made in physics, chemistry and medicine. Topics such as the expansion of the universe, the structure of crystals and how the body's immune system fights infection earned scientists distinguished Nobel prizes this year.
